

For more information, visit www.DivorceResourcesSite.com

THE “TALK TO STRANGERS” POCKET GUIDE FOR PARENTS SUPPLEMENT #2

RESOURCES FOR DIVORCE AND POST-DIVORCE PARENTING

There's no shortage of resources for parenting advice during and after divorce. The following list contains resources for use by all parents as well as several dedicated either to specific demographics or specific parenting issues.

- <http://www.uptoparents.org/> Numerous articles and videos regarding parenting during and after divorce.
- <http://shop.americanbar.org/eBus/Store/ProductDetails.aspx?productId=214378> American Bar Association handbook: “Family Advocate Vol. 29 #1: My Parents Are Getting Divorced.”
- www.sesameworkshop.org/ Resources for parents and children ages 2 to 8 to help the children understand and cope with divorce.
- <http://www.childcentereddivorce.com/kids/> Unique approach to breaking the news about the divorce to the children.
- www.DivorceResourcesSite.com Talk to Strangers resource site contains articles for professionals and parents intended to avoid child-related litigation
- <http://www.amazon.com/exec/obidos/ASIN/1886230269/divorcecenter-20> Parenting After Divorce: A Guide to Resolving Conflicts and Meeting Your Children's Needs by Philip Stahl, Ph.D.
- www.familysupportamerica.org Parenting advice, and information regarding child abuse, alcoholism, disciplining children, divorce, and other topics related to families.
- www.Familyequality.org An organization dedicated to family equality for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender parents, guardians, and allies.

Learn more about caring for and protecting children during divorce at www.DivorceResourcesSite.com